

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report January 17, 2025 Submitted By: Olivia Faunce

The first Tudor Hall 4-H meeting for the year was held on Jan 17, 2025, in Tolerance Hall at St. Mary's Fairgrounds.

The meeting started at 7:17pm.

We started a Community Service Project making sock cupcakes for the Nursing Home. The Pledge was led by Trenton Ridgell and the 4-H pledge was led by Ernest Kershaw. Roll call was taken by stating name and what 1 thing you like. The last meeting minutes were read by Madison Arcadipane. The treasurer's report was given by Delia Vallandingham. Leroy Kershaw gave a demo on making Dirt Pudding.

Old business was discussed: Holiday Workshop was held at the 4-H building conference room. 11 4-H members attended. We asked the Members that attended what their favorite thing they made was. The Lego Holiday countdown winner was Leroy Kershaw. We were invited to a Gingerbread house workshop, 2 members attended, and Madalyn Russell won the T-shirt contest. Steer weigh in was attended by 3 members.

New business was discussed: Officers training is to be held Jan. 18th at 10am in the Tolerance Hall. Livestock Knowledge workshops will begin Jan. 27th from 6-8pm. March 1st will be the Md State Livestock Skillathon. Crazy Critters 4-H club will be holding a yard sale at Mt. Zion church. Rabbit workshops will be held this year, date and time to be determined. Delia Vallandigham was admitted to the MD 4-H State Council.

Our next club meeting will be held on Feb. 21st. It was voted on to pass out valentines or to have a club party. The party idea won the vote. A signup will be sent out to bring a dish. Record books were turned in tonight or the deadline is Sunday, the last will be Mon. Jan. 27th. It was announced that Tractor Supply in Char. Hall will have another festival in March. Volunteer Don Burroughs brought Napa antique truck & tractor calendars to pass out.

The meeting ended at 8:05

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND EXTENSION

REPORTER'S NEWS Tudor Hall 4-H Club Report July 25, 2025 Submitted By: Olivia Faunce

The Tudor Hall 4-H meeting was at Tolerance Hall at St. Mary's Fairgrounds.

The meeting started at 7:08 pm.

We worked on making bunny cups for the club booth before the meeting began. Trent Ridgell led the Pledge of Allegiance. Madelyn Russell led the 4-H Pledge. Roll call was taken by stating our names. New members were introduced. The last meeting minutes were read by Madison Arcadipane. The treasurer's report was given. Demos were done by Suzannah Wathen on Quail. Leroy Kershaw on Netherland dwarf rabbits and Madelyn Russell did a demo on cookies. Old business was discussed: Weigh in Check In was July 26th with the Wild Things 4-H club. None of our members attended. New business was discussed: 4-H dairy goat judging at the State Fair the end of August. An upcoming Nature Event for 8yrs or older will be at Sotterley. We discussed the booth for the 4-H building and the float. The theme will be Hop on over to Tudor Hall 4-H club. Wild Things club will be hosting a Livestock Skillathon on Aug. 5th and will also have a Hooves trimming event on Aug 9th. A Food Drive event will take place on Sept 13th at the Lex. Park U-Haul and also at Bay District Firehouse. Emily Gale will be collecting items for Three Oaks. She will have a bin at the fair and next meeting.

Meeting ended at 7:38